4. The cultural and social installations were to be divided as follows:

a. The mining combine would receive:

Eisleben "two-year" school (including Hallesche Strasse Training School)
Friedrichstrasse recreational house (Kulturhaus)
Eisleben Lindergarten
Eisleben sportsfield

b. The smelting combine would receive

Haus der Jugend (Youth) und des Sportes
Eisleben day nursery
Halbra sportsfield

5. A technical administration (technische Leitung) with corresponding subdivisions would exist in both combines.

6. The investment planning (Investplan) has been made independent of either combine. However, as of 30 September 1953 the Investment Section for Housing Construction (die Investabteilung Wohnungsbau) would be attached to the smelting combine while the Investment Section for subsidiary installations (die Investabteilung Nebenanlagen) would be attached to the mining combine.

7. The dwellings of the miners would go to either combine, according to their situation and location.
